No. L. 3271—Med. 76-22-4, dated 6*th November* 1923.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 62 of the Mysore Lunacy Regulation, No. 1 of 1916, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to make the following supplementary rules to those issued in Notification No. J. 3676—Pris. 9-16-8, dated the 17th April 1917 in regard to the conveyance of lunatics to the Lunatic Asylum:—

1. Before sending a lunatic to the Asylum, enquiries should be made as to whether accommodation is available.

2. The Judicial Officer who despatches the lunatic is held responsible that the escort is provided with sufficient means to buy suitable cooked food (including, where necessary, such articles as milk, coffee or biscuits) for the use of the lunatic during his journey to the Asylum and that the lunatic is provided with sufficient and suitable clothing.

3. If the person legally bound to maintain the lunatic is unable to provide the means to buy the food or the clothing, they should be provided at Government expense.

4. Every female lunatic sent to the Asylum should be accompanied by a female attendant or relative in addition to the usual police escort.

5. A lunatic should not be hand-cuffed or led by a chain, or otherwise subjected to barbarous or violent treatment, unless there is imminent danger of his inflicting injuries on himself or on the escort, and even in such cases no more physical force or restraint should be used than is absolutely necessary to prevent the danger apprehended.

6. The superintendent, Lunatic Asylum is authorised to bring to the notice of Government through the Senior Surgeon any infraction of these rules.
